Opis produktu

So small and yet so bold, Believer will give you wings to dare, experiment, and fully live breathtaking experiences alone or with a loved one.

Featuring an exclusive Flapping design, the symbiosis between the body and the Believer is real. This design consists of two inseparable strengths working together for an explosive result. The rhythmic up and down movements allow the flexible silicone membrane to move like wings over the clitoral area. The ultra-soft mouth hugs the clitoris and acts as a soundbox whose mission is to amplify the sensations generated by the movements. Play around with the 5 intensities to obtain more or less intense stimulation, with the change of mode easily visible day and night thanks to the backlit screen. Its rounded design is totally adapted to the ergonomics of your hand, making handling a real pleasure.

Like your orgasms in water? In the bath or in the shower, wherever you want – Believer is waterproof! Its small size is a big advantage: slip it into your suitcase or your handbag, take it along for the weekend, on a trip or to the office – when desire hits, it won't wait!

A confidence booster, Believer will give you the courage to dare with conviction.
