There is a harness at the front that is made out of soft matte look straps and rings. There is a ring at either side of the body (in the waist area) where the included soft arm restraints can be attached. The restraints can be easily attached to the rings because of their snap hooks. The crotch area is completely crotchless and there is only a (removable) stimulating chain over the crotch. There is a small ring on the neckline and there is a press stud at the back. The restraints can be adjusted with the hook and loop fasteners. The adjustable suspender straps are removable. 90% polyamide, 10% spandex; matte look 90% polyester, 10% spandex. Without stockings.
