Body with captivating extras!

The crotchless body from Cottelli BONDAGE has removable suspender straps and thigh harnesses. A collar with chain leash and two arm restraints for soft bondage games are also included! The body is made out of black powernet and it has decorative details in dark purple matte look material. It also has silver-colored accessories. It is low-cut at the front and the back. It is seductively crotchless too. With a hook fastener at the back and adjustable straps. The waistband has rings on it for the two included arm restraints. The restraints can be put on quickly, thanks to their hook and loop fasteners, and they can also be adjusted to fit. This is also like the included choker with the removable chain (with a snap hook) that can be used as a leash. The adjustable suspender straps and double thigh straps can be removed as well.

90% polyamide, 10% spandex.
