Opis produktu

The Silicone Dilator Kit from the Inspire collection by CalExotics is a unique set of vaginal dilators that help restore and revive vaginal strength and comfort. The sleek set contains 5 dilators, varying in size for gradual dilation. They are easy to use thanks to the finger loop and are a perfect way of exercise for women with issues concerning intimate tightening. The set is made of premium silicone and comes in a tasteful, contemporary packaging.

The Silicone Dilator Kit is part of the new Inspire range. This collection of intimate products is aimed at improving the lives of women on their journey for heightened, sexual experience. The products can help relieve physical discomfort that might arise from illness, age or other factors and are carefully constructed for women who want to increase their intimate strength, resulting in a more enjoyable sex life. A portion of the proceeds from the Inspire collection will go to the Living Beyond Breast Cancer charity: an organization that provides programs and services to people whose lives have been impacted by breast cancer. By investing in the Inspire range you're not just pleasing your consumers with innovative and helpful products, you are also contributing to a worthwhile cause!
