Opis produktu

The doctor is in! The Dr. Skin Glide 8.5 Inch Self Lubricating Dildo with Balls is a realistic, self lubricating toy that only needs a bit of water to get slippery! The Dr. Skin Glide has a sturdy suction cup base that will hold to any flat surface and is harness compatible. Made from body safe TPE, this toy contains no fragrances, phthalates, paraffins, or latex. Self lubricating properties are temporary. It will last up to 12 uses. To clean, wash with soap and water. Pat dry and allow to air dry before storing. Use product only with water based lubricants. It is recommended to start using water based lubricants after self lubricating properties begin to diminish. Self lubricating: slippery when wet, just add a little water. Detailed for a realistic look and feel. Strong suction cup and O-ring harness compatible. Made of body safe TPE, contains no synthetic fragrance, phthalate, paraffins, or latex. Length 8,5 inch / 21,5 cm. Width 2 inch / 5 cm.
